Inquest on Pretty Ellen Newton's Death Put Off Till Tuesday.

The Three Suspects Safe in the Jall at White Plains.

Chester Creek, at Invermere, last Monday, until Tuesday next.

CORONER'S DETECTIVE, J. J. MOONE. This action was necessitated by a new case which summoned the Coroner to Bedford twenty miles from here, at an early hour this morning. Then, too, he has an inquest at Unionville in the case of Miss Simms, the young woman who shot and killed herself Tuesday because she had been jitted. These facts, together with work yet to be done on the Ellen Newton case, made it imperative that the inquest should be post-with the affair.

Meyers has admitted that he knows Landrine, one of the colored men, and says he met him at New Rochelle.

When Meyers was first arrested he declared that he spent all day Monday in the company of James Bruce, a mason, as stated in yesterday's Evening Wonds.

Bruce denies that he met Meyers until 4.30 Monday afternoon.

Both Drs. Smith and Weiss, Coroner's physicians, say that Miss Newton was not a victim of assault, there were marks on her person not caused by accident nor by the girl herself. There were decided abrasions, the doctors agree, which had beed made but a few nours belong the girl's death. It is not impossible that the bruises were made before she came to Mount Vernon or to Inverimere, but it is equally possible that they were made later.
